Marcelo Blackburn Named to HNBA's 2018 "Top Lawyers Under 40"

FEBRUARY 14, 2018

Litigation Partner Marcelo Blackburn has been named to The Hispanic National Bar Association's (HNBA) "Top Lawyers Under 40" list. The annual awards recognize accomplished lawyers who have demonstrated professional excellence, integrity, leadership, commitment to the Hispanic community, and dedication to improving the legal profession.

Marcelo is recognized for his work representing Latin American clients on a broad range of complex commercial litigation and international arbitration, including cases involving claims of securities fraud and corporate governance, RICO violations, contract disputes and business torts, and various transnational legal issues.

The 2018 honorees will be recognized during the 2018 HNBA Corporate Counsel Conference in San Francisco on March 16, 2018.
