Winston's Latin America Practice Recognized in Latin Lawyer's 250 2018

FEBRUARY 28, 2018

Winston & Strawn is recognized in Latin Lawyer's 250 2018, a noted guide to the leading business law firms of Latin America. The list is the product of intensive editorial research over time, with key practice strengths and leading players identified, and also includes comments from corporate counsel. Below is a selection of quotes from Winston's Latin America Practice LL 250 profile:

Overview

"Over the years, the practice group [that joined Winston in 2017] has built up a deliberately diverse service offer and geographical coverage, which serves it well in Latin America's cyclical economy."

Corporate and M&A

"The firm has a highly-regarded corporate practice that pulls in work across the region thanks to an efficient and reliable service offering."

Private Equity

"The firm has been especially busy on clients' investments in the energy, telecoms and consumer industries."

Banking & Finance

"The team has been busy in Argentina, working on the first cross-border financing under the new administration in Argentina, on behalf of Pampa Energia."

Capital Markets

"The firm's solid capital markets practice sees work in numerous countries in the region."

Arbitration

"Winston & Strawn has represented the states of Ecuador and Chile in high profile disputes and it also handles commercial arbitrations."
