

New York Office Hosts Inaugural Alumni Reception

MARCH 6, 2018

Winston was pleased to host its inaugural New York alumni reception on February 28 at The Campbell in Grand Central Station. Our continued investment in building a robust Alumni Program recognizes the influential role of all Winston attorneys, present and past, in defining the firm's culture and global brand.

This party with a purpose gave the 70 alumni, partner, and associate attendees an opportunity to cultivate new and existing relationships in the spirit of camaraderie, creativity, and collaboration. Energy and enthusiasm filled the private event room as New York Office Managing Partner Michael Elkin welcomed attendees, thanked them for their participation, and encouraged their involvement in future Winston programs.

Alums, including two who were part of Winston's 1989 expansion into New York, mingled and took photos with current attorneys in historic surroundings that featured 25-foot hand painted ceilings, a grand stone fireplace, and century-old leaded glass windows.

Our alumni are encouraged to join the Winston & Strawn LLP Attorney Alumni Group on LinkedIn and to contact Director of Partner Hiring & Alumni Relations Debby Cusumano Caldwell with information to help us connect with even more of our former colleagues.

We look forward to seeing our alumni across the country at future events planned for the coming year and beyond.
