

Kathi Vidal Discusses Trial Tactics and Strategies at LCA's Renaissance Symposium

APRIL 20, 2018

Patent Litigation and Silicon Valley Managing Partner Kathi Vidal discussed jury trials and the valuable lessons of her courtroom work at the exclusive Litigation Counsel of America's \(LCA\) Renaissance Symposium XIII, which took place in San Francisco on April 20. Her presentation was titled "How to Use Your Diverse Trial Team to Beat Left-Brained Lawyers at their Own Game: Winning the Technical Trial."

There were only 16 presenter slots for this full-day event, which was an advanced trial series that offered the unique opportunity of speaking before and learning from one's elite peers in a small group setting. The series revolves around actual trial tactics and strategies.

Kathi is a nationally-recognized intellectual property litigator known for trying high-profile, high-stakes, and high-tech patent disputes for leading companies.
