

Winston Welcomes Labor and Employment Attorney Virgile Puyau as Local Partner in Paris

APRIL 6, 2018

PARIS – Winston & Strawn is pleased to announce the addition of Virgile Puyau as local partner in the firm's Paris office.

A seasoned labor and employment lawyer, Virgile advises French and international clients on a variety of transactional and litigation matters. In particular, he handles the labor law aspects in mergers and acquisitions (social audits, assessment of social consequences, and implementation and negotiation of job protection plans). Virgile developed a concentration in the negotiation and execution of collective agreements, the management of labor relations, and restructurings. His litigation experience in collective and individual matters covers French labor courts, civil and criminal courts, and administrative courts.

Virgile worked in the labor law department of another international law firm before joining Vaughan Avocats in 2011.
