

Kobi Kennedy Brinson Speaks at IADC Mid-Year Meeting

FEBRUARY 17, 2015

Winston & Strawn partner Kobi Kennedy Brinson spoke at the International Association of Defense Counsel Mid-Year Meeting on February 17, 2015, in Marco Island, Florida.

Ms. Brinson presented “Microinequities and Potential Crash and Burn: Are You at Risk?” The presentation examined how to recognize and effectively deal with the tangible and intangible messages of diversity and inclusion, which can enhance your success, as well as the success of your legal organization. Addressing these issues ineffectively could create harmful effects, resulting in hostile work environments, discrimination, and other legal and workplace problems.

Ms. Brinson is a litigation partner in the firm’s Charlotte office who focuses her practice on representing financial services and other clients with government inquiries, and additional regulatory and consumer finance matters.
