

Careers@Winston - Welcome From Attorney Resources & Recruitment!

OCTOBER 9, 2013

Welcome to the new winston.com site! Our digital media team has worked very hard over the past two years on the redesign and we are all excited to see their hard work come to life. One of the additions to the careers section is this, the careers blog. We will share with you insights to the firm and the people, such as Q&As with our staff and attorneys, information about our involvement in our respective local communities and events in each of our offices. During the redesign process, we listened: many winston.com users told us law firm websites are often indistinguishable from one another and our mission with this blog is to be a point of differentiation. The attorney resources & recruitment department looks forward to providing a more in depth look into the firm and our offices.

If you have ideas for future blog posts, please click here and tell us. We want this to be an active and engaged medium for our readers and if there's something interesting, we hope you will share with people you know.

This is our group photo from a recent department meeting. Everyone looks so good in their Sunday best!
