+33 1 53 64 81 26

Rim advises both domestic and international companies and individuals in complex civil, commercial and criminal litigation proceedings, including contractual and shareholder disputes.

Rim has significant experience in the health care, real estate, construction, and industrial sectors. She concentrates her litigation practice on a broad range of complex civil, commercial, and criminal litigation, with a focus on contract disputes, bankruptcy-related disputes, unfair competition disputes, construction, real estate, and post-acquisition disputes. She assists her clients throughout all stages: pre-action claims, transactional negotiations, pleadings, and enforcement proceedings.

Her extensive experience enabled her to develop a pragmatic approach to contractual disputes, breach of contracts, and termination of business relationships.

Rim's native language is French and she is fluent in English and Spanish.
