

Winston Hosts MMOT Intellectual Property Training Program

JULY 14, 2014 - JULY 19, 2014

Winston & Strawn hosted the Multi-Discipline Management of Technology (MMOT) Intellectual Property training program in Washington, D.C. on July 14-19, 2014. The ITRI-MMOT program is sponsored by Cornerstone IP Foundation of Taiwan with the support of the Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA) of Taiwan. The program entails initial training in Taiwan and is followed by intensive training in the United States, covering the law and policy of intellectual property, the practices of technology transfer, and other business and marketing issues concerning technology management.

The following Winston & Strawn attorneys presented at the seminar:

- Chuck Klein presented “Litigation in the Pharmaceutical Industry: An Introduction to ANDA Cases”
- Ben Kern presented “Technology Commercialization Structures: Licensing, Joint Ventures, and Spin-Outs”
