

The ADA at 25: Compliance Strategies for Employers

OCTOBER 29, 2015

Winston & Strawn hosted an eLunch titled “The ADA at 25: Compliance Strategies for Employers” on October 29.

Although it’s been 25 years since Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), many employers are beginning to face what appears to be a wave of employee-driven ADA litigation. Therefore, the ADA’s 25th anniversary is a good time for employers to revisit the landmark law to ensure ongoing compliance.

Emilie Woodhead and Jason Campbell presented an engaging and informative presentation that covered:

- Strategies for adequately engaging in the interactive process
- Determining what accommodations are reasonable
- The latest cases and claims from the plaintiffs’ bar
- Practical tips for remaining compliant
