

Thomas Fitzgerald Receives AJC Chicago's Judge Learned Hand Human Relations Award

OCTOBER 22, 2015

Winston & Strawn Managing Partner Thomas Fitzgerald was presented with AJC Chicago's Judge Learned Hand Human Relations Award at a dinner ceremony on October 22, 2015. Governor James Thompson presented the award to Mr. Fitzgerald in recognition of his exceptional professional accomplishments and dedication to philanthropic and civic endeavors. The event raised over $600,000 to benefit AJC's work.

Presented annually to a distinguished Chicago attorney, the Judge Learned Hand Award was established in memory of the celebrated jurist who served more than 50 years on the federal bench, many of them as Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.
