

Community Service

OCTOBER 22, 2013

Do you like to help your community? Do you wish you had time to help your community? At Winston & Strawn we provide you with the time (paid!) and the opportunity to help your community through our Volunteer@Winston program. Each domestic office holds several volunteer opportunities each year for our attorneys and staff. Check out where we have volunteered in the past 12 months:

- Chicago's Children's Museum
- Chicago's Animal Care & Control
- Washington, D.C.'s Special Olympics
- Washington's Central Kitchen
- Houston's Child Advocates Office
- Charlotte's Loaves & Fishes
- Houston's Wesley Community Center's Early Childhood Education Program
- New York's Yorkville Food Pantry
- New York's Ronald McDonald House
- San Francisco's Golden Gate National Parks Conservancy
- San Francisco's Little Brothers – Friends of the Elderly
- Los Angeles' Food From the Bar

Transportation is provide by the firm in addition to a follow up luncheon. Everyone who participates is thrilled and fulfilled from their giving back.

As Martin Luther said: “Everybody can be great because everybody can serve.”
